SOURCE:

1. The first issue of Combate, the Argentine-sponsored newspaper which was scheduled to resume publication in Cuba on 8 May 1953,<sup>1</sup> will be dedicated to Antonio GUITERAS, the anti-imperialist leader and founder of the Accion Revolucionaria Guiteristas (ARG). The issue will contain strong anti-United States propaganda, using GUITERAS as a pretext.
2. When the publication of Combate has become firmly established, it is planned to inaugurate a political-revolutionary group in Cuba, which will serve as a mechanism for the distribution of Peronista propaganda. Ostensibly this group will not be associated with the proposed nationalist movement which the Argentines intend to initiate in Cuba.<sup>2</sup>

2.  Comment. The planned nationalist movement has received the support of the ARG under the leadership of Lauro BLANCO.
